SKILLS

TIME MANAGEMENT

Has a previous employee at IBM my designated role was (HR). In this role I used to handle 20 - 50 inbounds calls per day with excellent planning and coordination skills, with preparing range of written communication, documents and reports, updating databases while complying with GDPR regulations, developed team communications and information for meetings for customized customer experience.

PUBLIC SPEAKING

Recently, I had the opportunity to speak in front of an audience. One of my last presented results of my skills at an ongoing course in college. After preparing the presentation materials for a few minutes, I had to answer questions from the team. I took the time to create a list of possible answers and I covered almost all of them well in advance. It was an answer that came out of the material, so it worked. At the end of the presentation, my tutor said mine was without a doubt the best interaction of the day.

COMMUNICATION

As said above I recently had an interaction with an ongoing class with almost 40 - 50 students in the class which I successfully adopted my communication skills by answering the suitable questions which was questioned by my tutor and interacted with good communication skills.

SKILLS

TEAMWORK

Has an EX employee at IBM me and my colleagues were handling a set of 50 – 60 employees by strategically planning scheduled for the weeks which includes employee productivity performance, monitoring compliance with workplace policies, safety objectives, ensuring timeframes and regulation were followed.

SELF-REFLECTION

During my working profession, I personally faced with lot of competencies but have over come with all those with few skills which I implied by taking time out for myself to sit and think, remove all distractions or find a quiet location, Start with the question that comes to mind the most just let the answer flow, write anything that comes to my mind and be honest with my decisions.

COMMITMENT TO EQUALITY, DIVERSITY, AND INCLUSION

Diversity to me means different backgrounds, people and perspectives. I've worked in organizations that value diversity and those that don't, and the difference is clear. Diversity is necessary for a successful workplace. Respecting equality means everyone has an equal voice within the company, and companies that value this have fairer and more positive internal processes. Inclusion means everyone feels valued and welcome at work. Without them, there is no functioning workforce.
